Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Recently Deceased

We remember in our prayers:-

Kathleen Rogers R.I.P.

Late of Sutton Park

Our thoughts and prayers are with her family, friends and neighbours.

May she rest in peace. Amen.

Reflection on Today's Gospel

Believers united, heart and soul!

We come together today like the first believers, praying for unity of heart and soul. With our fellow Christians, we celebrate the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, the Lord of Life!

In the First Reading, we hear how belief in the resurrection brings the disciples together as a community, united in faith and love in action.

The Gospel tells of Jesus' appearance to the disciples, who are overjoyed at his presence. They receive through him the gift of the Holy Spirit and are given their mission. A week later, the Lord appears again to the previously absent Thomas, who responds - 'My Lord and my God'!

Today, on Divine Mercy Sunday, we pray to the Father through the power of the Holy Spirit, that we may daily surrender to God's mercy.

Easter Dues and Family Offerings Envelopes may be left with the Parish Secretary.

Parish Office

The Parish Office will be open on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday 9.00am to 1.00pm.

New Pilgrim Path

Amid the joys of Easter, many still struggle with the idea that Jesus had to die for our sins as a sacrifice to appease a wrathful God. Franciscan theology offers an alternative, non-violent, atonement theory which has never been deemed heretical. Richard Rohr: "This theory says that Jesus did not come to change the mind of God about humanity, He came to change the mind of humanity about God." Listen to a fascinating interview on this topic with Pat Coyle, Director of Irish Jesuit Communications. Listen at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Take a 30-Minute Walk Every Day

Your best ideas rarely come when you open an email, rush to meet the 5pm deadline or strain to make your voice heard in a high-stress meeting. They come when you bathe, walk your dog, or swing in a hammock. Set time aside every day and take a short walk, meditate, or do something else to clear your mind. This also can reduce depression and stress.

The Journey is Short

An elderly woman got on a bus and sat down. At the next stop, a strong, grumpy young woman climbed up and sat down beside the old woman, hitting her with her numerous bags.

When she saw that the elderly woman remained silent, the young woman asked her why she had not complained when she hit her with her bags?

The elderly woman replied with a Smile: "There is no need to be rude or discuss something so insignificant, as my trip next to you is so short, because I am going to get off at the next stop."

This answer deserves to be written in gold letters: "There is no need to discuss something so insignificant, because our journey together is too short."

Each of us must understand that our time in this world is so short, that darkening it with useless arguments, jealousy, not forgiving others, discontentment and bad attitudes are a ridiculous waste of time and energy.

Bringing Young People Together

Teen Hope Connected is a weekly Youth Group place every Wednesday 6-7pm via Zoom. Join us for fun, exploring faith and life with other teens through small group discussions, top class games and prayer.

Looking After Your Mental Health

Tony Bates, eminent psychologist, through Rotary Ireland, will host a webinar 'Looking after your mental health' tomorrow, Monday 12th April, at 1pm. It is a free event with unlimited attendees. Register on https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_9Cw5BOx2Sf-oZLxItrYTmA. Never in our lifetimes, has there been such a need to give mental health support for people as we contend with Covid 19 and the restrictions placed on our freedom to work, socialise, travel, partake in normal family activities, comfort the ill and dying and share our grief for the loss of our loved ones.

Weekly Reflection on the Scriptures

The weekly reflection will resume tomorrow (Monday) 12th April 7.30-8.30pm. Contact Sr Phyllis at 086-890-9488 with your email address and join us on Zoom any Monday night 7.30-8.30pm to reflect on the liturgy for the following Sunday. It is so rewarding and enhances participation at Mass on the day.

Breaking the Generational Curse

Quit yelling at your kids before they go to bed and expect them to sleep well. Quit yelling at your kids in the morning right after they wake up, before school and expect them to have a good day. You set the tone for your children. You set the tone for YOUR voice that they will always remember in their heads. You become their inner voice. Don't be their inner critic. Let's raise kids who don't need therapy to heal from their childhoods. Speak life. Speak love. Speak bravery and kindness and hope. Speak wisdom and truth. But most of all, Listen to your children. Be their safety net. Be their Home.

Michelle Sorenson

Thought for the Week

I have one life and one chance to make it count for something. My faith demands that I do whatever I can, wherever I am, whenever I can, for as long as I can, with whatever I have to try and make a difference. – Jimmy Carter
