Volunteers Needed Urgently - The Irish Cancer Society’s Volunteer Driver Service is currently seeking volunteer drivers to drive local patients to and from their chemotherapy treatments in our Dublin hospitals. We are looking for volunteers from all over north Co. Dublin to pick local patients up at their homes, drive them to the door of the hospital, pick them up again when they are finished their treatment and bring them home.
Driver expenses are paid. Telephone Rebecca on 01 2316 642 or email transport@irishcancer.ie

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

We invite and encourage as many people as possible to commit to an hour a week for this very special ministry in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Kilbarrack/Foxfield. You may like to meditate, pray or read some spiritual books which are provided in the Church. Adoration takes place from 11a.m.—4p.m. from Tuesday to Friday each week.

KNOCK

Pentecost Sunday, 15th May, 2016 is the date for this year’s Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock. This year of Mercy is a particularly suitable time to make the Pilgrimage—as you may know—there is a Chapel of Reconciliation at Knock which is open all day on Sundays in the Polgrimage Season, with a large number of priests available. Give it a bit of thought and hopefully you may enjoy the day with people from all over the Diocese.
